

Great news: Continental American Insurance Company and Aflac Joining Forces

Two outstanding insurers unite to form "unbeatable combination"

I have great news to share with you: Continental American Insurance Company (CAIC) is now part of the Aflac family!

In my view, we've put together an unbeatable combination. CAIC is known for quick and decisive leadership, business creativity and innovation, and a roster of high-performing group insurance policies. Aflac is a Fortune 200 company with a wide variety of outstanding insurance offerings that is recognized as one of the most respected and ethical companies in the United States.

Together, we offer a broad suite of insurance products and services designed to meet the needs of individuals; families; and small, medium and large businesses - supported by Aflac and CAIC, two of the most esteemed and service-oriented companies in the insurance industry.

Even though we are becoming part of Aflac, our day-to-day operations will not change. As an Aflac subsidiary, we will remain based in our hometown of Columbia, South Carolina, and our familiar management team will remain in place. We'll continue to support our community, our customers and our business partners with the same care, respect and responsiveness they've come to expect since our company was founded nearly 30 years ago. And now, thanks to the joint resources of CAIC and Aflac, you can also count on our commitment to:

Offering a broader and deeper range of products to meet a wider variety of insurance needs.

Providing innovation and insurance solutions.

Leveraging the combined financial strength and resources of two respected companies.

In closing, I want to thank you — our existing customers and partners - for placing your trust in CAIC and congratulate our team on becoming part of the Aflac family. As we go forward, all of us at CAIC and at Aflac will work to maintain your trust, loyalty and support.

Sincerely,

Chris Goodall
